WMCC provides the following information about this Certificate program to assist students in making an informed decision about their education, in compliance with U.S. Department of Education regulations.

Program Information:	Medical Coding Certificate	Classification of Instructional Program Code (CIP Code) and CIP Description:	51.0713 Medical Coding Certificate. This certificate is designed to teach students how to use the CPT, HCPCS and ICD-9 CM code books. Basic coding involves selecting codes when the procedure is straightforward and clearly defined and when the diagnosis is known. Instruction includes locating codes, selecting the most appropriate codes, and some billing issues. This certificate also prepares students to take the CPC exam to become nationally-certified coders. The program content also provides the student with basic medical office skills including HIPAA regulations, health information management, and patient scheduling. The certificate program allows students to transfer credits into the Office Management Medical Concentration degree program.
