Health and Wellness Degree: Program Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the program, graduates will be prepared to:

1. Determine community needs to plan and organize appropriate wellness activities.
2. Evaluate and provide a report of wellness activities to management including budget, promotion, and participation/satisfaction data.
3. Demonstrate professionalism and accuracy in data collection and distribution.