Information Technology Degree: Program Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this program, graduates will be prepared to:

1. Troubleshoot, configure, and maintain desktop computer hardware.
2. Install and configure Windows computers and servers.
3. Design local area networks using multiple subnetworks.
4. Configure networking devices to forward traffic throughout local area networks.
5. Configure networking devices to connect to Internet Service Providers.
6. Configure and maintain computer network servers.
7. Establish and maintain basic network security policies and procedures.
8. Prepare for selected industry recognized certifications.
9. Demonstrate proficiencies in the foundation of programming languages and object-oriented databases.
10. Demonstrate problem solving and critical thinking skills.
11. Demonstrate knowledge in social, legal, and ethical implications of computer information technology.