Early Childhood Education Resources

Find Books:
Search for books in the library catalog. Start with a Keyword search—some words you may considering using: day care, kindergarten, child development, classroom management, special education.

Or browse the shelves. Try these areas of the shelves: HQ767 for Children in the Family or LB1101-1602 for Child study and early education.

Ebooks from Ebscohost – There are over 600 books on early childhood.

Background Information:
Credo Reference – select titles include:

- Key Concepts in Early Childhood Education and Care
- Cambridge Encyclopedia of Child Development

Journals- stay up to date by checking out current issues of print journals.

- Exceptional Children
- Exchange
- Young Children
- Zero to Three

Find Articles:
Use Discovery Search to do a quick search across multiple databases.

Search subject specific resources for more targeted results:

- ERIC: The Education Resource Information Center
- ProQuest Education Journals
- Psychology and Behavioral Sciences Collection

Websites:

- CYFERnet
- Family Resource Connection
- Federal Resources for Educational Excellence
- National Center for Learning Disabilities
- Whole Child

Don’t forget to check out our children’s books.

We have a broad selection of juvenile picture books, non-fiction, and chapter books located near the back of the library.