Legal & Ethical Issues

Find Books:

The library has many print resources on legal and ethical issues across many disciplines, including business ethics, medical ethics, and more. Search for books using the online catalog.

To request a book be sent to the Littleton Academic Center, please call or email the library.

There are many eBooks covering issues such as philosophy, ethics, and the ethical issues in biomedicine, economics, criminal justice, globalization, etc.

Background Information

Credo Reference has entries for just about everything. Big issues have their own topic pages, with a summary of information and links to related material.

Use the Discovery Search to search across multiple databases. Search eBooks, newspapers, journals, and more with one click.

If you run a broad search, the Discovery Search will often provide a Research Starter, which gives background information and will help you narrow and focus your topic for better searching.

Too many results? Try a more specialized database:

- Academic Search Premier
- ProQuest Central

Search tips:

AND – narrows a search. Ex. Children and depression

OR – broadens a search. Use to connect synonyms or similar concepts. Ex. children or adolescents or teens

NOT – exclude terms from the search. This can be helpful if getting too many non-relevant results. Ex. Caribbean NOT Cuba

Advanced Tip:

Use Quotation Marks to search an exact phrase. Ex. “information technology”
