

Instructions for Tax Filers

IRS Tax Return Transcript Request Process for Filers

Tax filers can request a transcript, free of charge, of their “2021” tax return from the IRS in one of three ways.

- Please be sure to request an “IRS Tax Return Transcript” and not an IRS Tax Account Transcript.
- IF SUBMITTING A TAX RETURN, THEN PLEASE SIGN AND DATE THE TOP PAGE.

Online Request:

- Available on the IRS website at www.irs.gov
- Under the “How Can We Help You?”, click on “Get Your Tax Record”
- Click on Blue Box that reads, “Get Transcript Online” to sign in or create a new account with ID.me.

NOTE: IRS Tax Return Transcripts requested online cannot be sent directly to a third party by the IRS.

Alternative to Requesting a Transcript online:

We recommend requesting a transcript online since that’s the fastest method. If you can’t get your transcript online, you can request your IRS Tax Transcript by mail instead.

What you need

To request a transcript by mail, you need your mailing address from your latest tax return

What you get:

- Tax Transcript transcript types delivered by mail. (You will want to request a copy of your IRS Tax Transcript NOT Account Transcript.)
- Transcripts arrive in 5 to 10 calendar days to your address.

You can also request a transcript by mail by calling the IRS automated phone transcript service at 800-908-9946.

- Note: Transcripts partially mask your personally identifiable information for protection. Financial data will remain fully visible to allow tax preparation, tax representation or income verification. Learn more at About Tax Transcripts .
- If you need a photocopy of your return, submit Form 4506-T
 - Tax Transcript
 - Wage and Income Transcript (W-2 Equivalent); or
 - Verification of Non-Filing letter
- CAUTION: The IRS does not initiate contact with taxpayers by email, text messages or social media channels to request personal or financial information. Visit report phishing for instructions if you’re unsure about the authenticity of any unsolicited communication you receive, other than U.S. mail, claiming to be from the IRS.
